FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mail matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.

Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, AUGUST 25, 1883.

The usual concert at White Hall to night.

Frankfort now has mails on all the Sunday trains which arrive and depart from this city. The new arrangement went into effect last Sunday.

The Lexington mail arrives at 4:10 p. m. and departs at 5:12 p. m. The Louisville mail arrives at 10:5 a. m. and departs at 5:25 p. m. The mails going out are closed half hour before the hours above given, and the general delivery and call boxes at the post-office will only be opened from four until five o'clock in the afternoon, but those having lock boxes can get their mail at any time, as the mails will be distributed shortly after arrival. No money orders will be issued or letters registered on Sunday.

A social entertainment was given on Thursday evening by Miss Maggie A. Lewis in honor of her cousin, Miss Julia Abbott, which was greatly enjoyed by the young folks who attended, and was quite a brilliant affair. The young ladies present were Misses Julia Abbott, of Covington; Etta Whitestone, of Louisville; Mary Morrison, of Little Rock, Arkansas; Ruby Turnbull and Julia Shelby, of St. Louis, Missouri; Lella Bush, of Haverhill; Fannie Tuley, of New Albany, Indiana; Lizzie Hunt, of Woodford county; Genie Barclay, of Georgetown; Todd Saffell, Annie Crutcher, Pattie Roberts, Sallie Sneed, Blanche Kendall, Sue Bush, Fannie Murphy, Nellie Chisholm, Klara Todd, and Mrs. W. H. Posey, of this city. The gentlemen were Messrs. W. L. McEwan, Will Lindsey, Crittenden Todd, Jas. M. Todd, Jr., Sidney Bash, Will J. Dudley, Dr. J. C. Bush, Frank Bash, Ed. W. Hines, Ed. Tuttle, John Stewart, Sam Bull, Jr., John Murphy, Frank Redman, J. Wesley Wright, James Cook, of Harrodsburg, C. E. James, Dr. Sam James, W. P. Hudson, Dudley Watson, Jas. W. Blackburn, Frank Cannon, Grant Green, Jr., Geo. K. Drane, S. D. Johnson, Jake Corbett, and J. W. Gayle.

The Mysterious Twelve.

For the past two weeks some of our citizens have noticed a small procession from in front of the Court-house, every afternoon about six o'clock, and proceed down St. Clair street, and have wondered what it meant. As our place of business lay on the line of their march, we have watched the mysterious crew with some interest and found that it was always composed of the Court-house Clique and inhabitants of the legal dens in the vicinity of the Temple of Justice to the number of Twelve—never any more and seldom less. On inquiry we learned that they were an organization called the "Mysterious Twelve," which sprang into existence the day on which the High Sheriff of this county made so narrow an escape from being incarcerated in Col. Sheehan's Castle for refusing to take a legal notice on the front door of the Court-house during the sitting of an examining court. After the court adjourned on that afternoon the younger members of the bar and other Court-house attaches, held a meeting and resolved, that inasmuch as the Sheriff had only escaped having to play checkers with his nose, as well as having to sell his entire possessions to pay an enormous fine through the kindness of heart of the Associate Justice, Judge R. E. Gaines, of Belle Point who refused to sign the mittimus and agree to the assessing of the fine, therefore he be required to forthwith "set 'em up" to the Judge and his friends, of whom they were.

When the matter was placed before the Sheriff in a proper light he consented to head the procession, and led them down to Wetzel's, where they did all themselves with ice cream and cake at his expense. Since that time the joy of the twelve at the escape of the Sheriff has been so great that every afternoon about six o'clock they assemble to commemorate the event, soon in procession and proceed to Wetzel's, where some members of the gang stand near Mr. J. S. Harrod, Common School Commissioner, is the Head Centre, and Deputy Clerk, R. B. Franklin is the Keeper of Records, and every member who is not present in person or by proxy is promptly fined the soda water for the crowd, to be paid at some future meeting.

We were fortunate enough to get in as a "sub," one evening this week, and would not object to becoming a member in full fellowship, but the select number is full.

Mr. John Heffner Dead.

Mr. John B. Heffner died at the residence of his mother, on Madison street, Wednesday afternoon about half past three o'clock, after a brief but painful illness, in the 36th year of his age. He had been in failing health for several years, and was compelled to give up his business, that of photographing, on account of it, but no one of his many friends who saw him on the street lost a few days since dreamed of his death so soon. He was of a cheerful disposition, full of life, and no one enjoyed a joke more than he.

Conscious of his condition, he quietly made his arrangements as if only going on a journey, expressed his willingness to die, and passed away calmly and peacefully. He was a conscientious, good young man, very popular with all who knew him, and he will be mourned by a host of friends. He leaves a wife and one child, who, to gether with other relatives, have the deepest sympathy of this community. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon from the Episcopal Church, of which he was a member.

The game of base ball Thursday between the Pleasureville and Capital City Clubs was a Waterloo for the home team, the score standing 25 to 15 against them. The game was long and uninteresting. The Frankfort boys were short their catcher, and seemed to be badly demoralized on account of his absence, while the catcher for the Pleasureville, Mr. Hammond, was as good as ever stood behind the bat and did the only really good playing of the game.

The Pleasureville boys concluded to stay over until yesterday afternoon and a second game was played yesterday morning, when our boys returned the compliment with interest, the score standing 25 to 11 in their favor.

E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

The Yeoman's prophet made a misnomer on the rain. He forgot that "all signs fail in dry weather."

Barnum has posted bills in this city announcing that his circus will appear in Lexington next Saturday.

Mr. Henry Burkhardt has closed his branch meat store in South Frankfort, the patronage not being sufficient to justify its continuance.

The brick work on the new Bahr Hotel is completed and workmen are busy putting on the roof. When completed it will be a handsome edifice.

The repairs on the dam at Lock No. 1 have been about completed and the Fannie Freese has resumed her regular trips. She will be up to-morrow.

Messrs. Jett & Scott have placed Drennon Spring water on draft in the Southern Exposition at Louisville. Mr. W. P. Scott, of this county has charge of the stand.

A great many persons are taking advantage of the low rates on the railroad to visit Louisville. Now all the trains which pass through this city are crowded both ways.

M. Henry Guber has broken ground for the foundation of two business houses on his lot on the corner of Lewis and Broadway streets, recently purchased by him of the O'Hara estate.

The toll gate on the Versailles pike, one mile and a half from this city, is to be abolished, and the gate consolidated with the one at the junction of the Georgetown pike, as it was formerly.

Mr. James Matthews, an employe at Messrs. Rodman & Sneed's mill, while at work at a planing machine Tuesday morning, was so unfortunate as to get his left hand caught in the machine, and lose the ends of the three first fingers.

Owing to inauguration day coming this year, the day after the one set for opening the school in this city, all of the principals of the institutions of learning have announced that their schools would not commence until Wednesday, the 5th of September.

Capt. G. Marsh, Woods, of this city, has purchased an interest in the steamer Katie P. Koutz, and will leave in a few days for New Orleans to take charge of her. He will run her between New Orleans and some of the lower tributaries of the Mississippi.

The work on dam No. 1 has been completed and the river is again open to navigation. The stage of the water could not be better for work on the lower slope of the dam below this city, and it has been pushed right along. It is hoped to get it completed this season.

The next session of Kentucky Eclectic Institute will open on the 5th of September. The school will continue as heretofore, under the charge of Prof. S. G. Stevens, whose large experience as a teacher has thoroughly fitted him for the position, and no better school can be found in this section by parents and others having children to educate. The terms are very reasonable.

Last year the city refused to allow the Gas Company to use water from the reservoir for love or money, and they were forced to sink a well to supply their works with water, but were fortunate enough to secure an abundant supply. Now when the city is without water the Gas Company have run a pipe over their fence and are supplying all Crawl with the life giving fluid free of charge, and it is being hauled to other portions of the city.

The Kentucky Central and Chesapeake & Ohio Railroads will run an excursion train from Covington to Old Point Comfort and Washington City, leaving Covington on Tuesday, September 4th. The rates from all stations will be, to Old Point and return, $11.00; to Washington and return, $12.50. This is an opportunity to take one of the grandest trips for a small amount that has been offered this summer.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will give a dinner at the Court House on Tuesday, September 4th—inauguration day—for the benefit of the Church, and all the hungry mouths who are in town that day will be certain to get a square meal, if they desire it, for a small amount. No hotel in the city will be able to come up to them in the character of fare they will furnish, and we hope our country friends will not forget it.

In the game of base ball at White Sulphur, Scott county, Wednesday, between the Capital City and the Georgetown Club the game was won by the club from this city, the score standing 18 to 13 in their favor at the end of the seventy inning. The day being exceedingly warm our boys declined to play longer and the game, together with the silver cup offered as a prize to the winning club, was given to the Georgetown boys.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Mrs. M. T. Ranyan will open the thirty-fifth annual session of her school, Greenwood Seminary, on the 5th of September.

This is now the oldest school in the State, and the announcement will secure for Mrs. Ranyan a full complement of scholars, many of them the children of her pupils of years gone by.

The Georgetown, Newtown and Payne's Depot precincts, in Scott county, will vote on the question of subscribing $50,000 to the capital stock of the Frankfort, Georgetown & Paris Railroad on the 22d of September. It is now proposed to tap the L. & N. Road at some point between this city and Midway. Mr. S. F. J. Trubow, of this county, will address the people of Scott county upon the subject at several points in the precincts named before the election.

A stage full of tourists returning from Yosemite Valley, California, were robbed near Inspiration Point, in that State, on the 14th of this month. A postal from Mr. Jas. A. Murray states that he and Mr. Jos. LeCompte, now in San Francisco attending the triennial Grand Convocation of Knights Templar of the United States, were to have taken the stage which was robbed but changed their minds and went another route, and thus missed the pleasure of being made to "stand and deliver."

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that an opportunity is offered some one to purchase one of the handsomest places near this city. Mr. John T. Gray's family having been greatly diminished by his children growing up and going out into the world, he desires to break up house-keeping and offers his home for sale. There are six acres of land on the place which can be made a splendid market garden or used as a pasture, is a nice distance from the city, and just the place to suit some business man. He will sell it at a bargain.

Mr. Benjamin F. Harrod, who lives in the Bald Knob neighborhood, went into Dr. W. H. Hall's drug store Monday morning, made some purchases, and went out, leaving his pocket-book containing $116 lying on the counter. After going down on Market street he discovered his loss and returned to look for his money. The book could not be found, but Dr. Hall remembered that a colored woman was in the store at the same time, and thinking she probably had picked it up, called in Officer J. M. Stephens, described the woman to him and related the circumstances. The officer soon found her with the money in her possession, which she readily gave up, saying she had found it. She was taken in charge, and had a trial directly afterward, which resulted in her being held over to the Circuit Court on the charge of grand larceny. Mr. Harrod got his money back and left for home as happy as a lark.

Very Low Rates

During the continuance of the Southern Exposition, at Louisville, Ky., (commencing August 1st, and continuing 100 days), the Louisville & Nashville Railroad will sell Excursion Tickets from any of its stations to Louisville at one fare for the round trip. These Tickets will be on sale every day, from L. & N. stations, and will be good 15 days, allowing ample time to visit the Greatest Exposition ever held in the South, and second only to the Centennial at Philadelphia.

The wife of R. H. Duval was taken speechless Monday evening. She had been apparently well all day. She has not spoken since.

FENNY.

Jett's Station.

Chicken thieves are plentiful in this section.

Miss Mattie Cox, of Frankfort, is visiting her cousin, Miss Maggie Quinn.

Rev. J. S. Jones preached a very interesting sermon at Grassy Spring Sunday.

Mrs. N. A. Montague, of Missouri, is visiting her brother, Mr. Mark Cronwell.

Miss Mamie Jett has returned home after a two weeks' visit to relatives in Bridgeport.

Miss Katie Shipp opened school at the White School-house last Sunday week. She has about twenty-five pupils.

Thieves entered Mr. Henry Hearn's hen-house last week and helped themselves to his chickens. A few nights afterwards they returned and took a live hen a short distance from the house, drowned the beast, and carried off the honey.

U. BR.

Tioga.

Crops are looking better since the rain in this vicinity.

Born.—On the 13th, to the wife of George W. Moore, a son.

Mr. Alex. Rogers has been very ill with congestion of the liver for several days.

Col. Dave Moore is still dealing in horse flesh, having made a valuable purchase recently.

Will some one please give Mr. George Moore a needle and thread before he starts to meeting next time.

I have of the neighbors want to borrow a harrow call on George Moore. He has one with three teeth he keeps to lend.

Mr. A. J. Huletta has a fine brown filly, for which he gave fourteen sheep. He wants to cheat little Dave with her.

Mrs. Emma Dodson, of Louisville, was the guest of Mrs. Bird Dodson and Mrs. Squire Tracy this week. The "Squire" got another ride in his black wagon.

Limber Jim Moore says there are two girls in this country that he has been going to see of late, and he is going to marry one or the other; but cannot tell which one yet.

Messrs. Barney Eakins and William Huletta are fixing to start West. Bill is selling out the agriculture and Barney is securing lat quadrants to send with him on their journey.

MINUS NEMO.

Stoney Creek.

Mr. Milton Moore sold two suckling mules for $125, to be delivered in September.

Mrs. Mary Smith, wife of Mr. Wm. Smith, sr., has been quite sick the past few days.

Master Jarrett Dalton has been quite ill for the past week, but is convalescent now.

Messrs. Francis Branner and B. B. Wit attended the Baptist Association at North Fork this week.

Mr.—Graves of South, Frankfort, was visiting the family of Mr. Wm. Smith, sr., Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Annie Moore, a very comely and refined young lady of Cedar Run, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

The Sunday-school at this place is largely attended. The house is filled to overflowing with pupils and visitors every Sunday.

Mr. John Smith's wife is also on the sick list, and has been for some time, but we are glad to state she is some better at present.

We would be glad if some preacher would send us an appointment and preach for us. We will insure him a good audience if he will only come.

Miss Annie Moore is the champion fisherwoman in this part of the country. She went to Mr. F. M. Smith's pond one afternoon and caught 99 sun perch.

SRAEF.

Bridgeport.

The Bridgeport school will commence Monday.

Mr. Andy Dowden has been quite sick for several days.

Mrs. Dr. Williams is visiting friends in this town this week.

Mr. Alex. Julian has returned from a visit to Crab Orchard.

Several of our citizens attended the fair at Lawrenceburg this week.

Miss Katie Huss, Messrs. Jas. and Stephen Tinsley and Mr. Jas. Satterwhite, all of Shelby county, was in the village last Saturday.

Miss Mary Moreland, of Shelby county, is in the village this week.

Miss Florida Robinson is in Lawrenceburg this week visiting friends.

Price Twines left last Saturday for Cincinnati with a car load of lambs.

Rev. Mr. Roberts, pastor of Indian Fork Church, preached at South Benson Church last Sunday.

Mr. Geo. W. Parent, of Louisville, is lying quite sick at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. H. S. Banta.

Col. F. M. Scott, U. S. Storekeeper stationed at Frankfort, visited his family and friends here last Sunday.

Miss Annie Kersey, accompanied by Mr. J. H. Bailey, U. S. Storekeeper, of Frankfort, were in this town last week.

Mrs. Bettie Miles and son, Forrest, have returned home from a visit of several weeks to friends and relatives in this section.

Mrs. Emily Parent had one of her thumbs very badly lacerated recently in her cider mill. We are glad to announce, however, that she has about recovered the use of it.

Mr. Thos. Farmer and wife, Rev. R. F. Middleton, and Messrs. J. W. Jenkins, Jas. H. Parent, W. H. Parent, and C. H. Parent attended the Franklin Baptist Association at North Fork Church this week.

A turnpike and school meeting was held in this place last Saturday, and much interest was manifested. We expect at no very distant day to have "pike" communication with Benson Depot, as well as a new school-house in our burg. Two improvements very much needed.

Antioch.

Query?—What carries our teacher, Mr. Hunter, to Benson every Saturday?

The school at this place (taught by Mr. Thos. Hunter) has run up into the forties.

Geo. Stivers has bought the widow Walston's spring wagon. Look out, Noah!

Mr. R. J. Shannon and lady went to the Association at North Fork Church this week.

Miss Belle Arnold left last Monday for a visit to her sister in Paris. Don't cry, ill, she'll be back again soon.

Mrs. Butler Glone and Mrs. John Stivers went to the "Big Ed" last Saturday on a visit to their sister, Mrs. Fink.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shackelford returned home last Saturday from Louisville, where they have been spending a week visiting.

The Hindoo Doctor (a certain lady out here calls him the Houdan) passed through the neighborhood last week, selling his medicine.

Could not some of the city preachers come to Antioch to come out to Shelby and preach for us? What says the reverend gent?

Mr. Charles Truel, in smoking the vermin out of his corn crib last Tuesday, set it on fire, and it was burnt up, together with a barrel of corn and twenty-six sticks of tobacco.

Messrs. Lee and Maggie Rosell and Miss Leora Glue visited the Sunday-school at Stoney Creek last Sunday evening. Their wagon gave out, or nearly so, and Larric Flynn, who was driving, turned the lines over to Miss Leora, and he and Miss Maggie took it home.

The leading feature, and the most interesting at the meeting of the Point Pleasant debating society last Friday night, was the reading of the "Point Pleasant Reporter" by the editor, Miss Lizzie Stivers. The paper was full to overflowing of wit, humor and literature, and the fair editors captivated her audience by her manner and style of reading. The essay would have been a credit to older minds. As it was, it showed Miss Lizzie to be a gifted writer.

Belle Point.

Robt. Quire is the Grocer who keeps the big watermelons.

A few big cisterns are badly needed in this burg. What would become of us in case of fire!

Born.—On Monday morning to Mr. John S. Davis and wife, a son—John Anderson, weight eleven pounds.

Miss Annie Cox, of Covington, Ky., is visiting the family of Judge Robert E. Gaines, on Kentucky Avenue.

How much more beautiful and convenient would Lake Park appear if the break in the dam could be repaired.

Miss Mary Forsee, a very pretty blonde, from Penk's Mill, is visiting the family of Mr. John W. Gaines, on Benson street.

Miss Maggie Noel, of Tylorville, and Miss Fannie Noel, of Bloomington, have been spending this week with the family of John W. Gaines.

Judge Robt. E. Gaines had the misfortune of having his great toe mangled by the accidental falling of a piece of iron which he was handling. He has to crutch it again.

Would it not be advisable for the town authorities in view of the great military display to be made Sept. 1st, to have all the sidewalks on Kentucky Avenue thoroughly repaired.

The mammoth wholesale and retail building erected by Mr. F. P. Lewis is rapidly approaching completion. Thanks to the prompt and efficient contractors Messrs. Allison & Turpen.

The public school over here is in a sad predicament. No school-house nor any prospect of one. Why do not the citizens hold a public meeting and take steps to supply the desideratum?

The Sabbath-school, under the management of Col. Sallett is progressing finely, but is sorely in need of teachers. Oh that a few valiant self-sacrificing Christians would rise up to our assistance!

We are pleased to notice the advent into our town of a new signboard which reads: "Wagon and Carriage Manufactory, by Harrison Brown." It is needless to say Mr. Brown is getting all he can do.

"Pink Cottage" (not Barnes') a new and very convenient residence for a small family is about completed and is ready for occupancy. It is located on Polsgrove street, and is for rent or sale. Messrs. Allison & Turpen builders.

One of our most enterprising citizens, Mr. Louis A. Moore, still in a short time commences the erection of a grist-mill in our town. This is very commendable in Mr. Moore, and we sincerely trust that his undertaking will prove a great success. In fact there is no reason why it will not be.

Now isn't that a pretty fashion to see a young man converting a young lady with his arm thrust through her to his shoulders, and poising her on one foot at an angle of about 45 degrees. Beautiful position, elegant style. Wonder if Belle Point isn't the only place on the globe where they do that way.

Mrs. Robt. Quire is the possessor of a bronze medal given by the International Exhibition at Philadelphia, 1876, for the finest specimen of bluish-gray mottled blue stone, and the following persons viz. For the fine homogeneous texture, pleasing color and strength of the stone, Would it not be well for the Custom House Commissioners to examine this stone.

HYNDAM.
